

REPORT

The Department of Education had organized a seminar entitled "Empowering Rural College Students: Cultivating Personal Growth and Leadership Skills for Success" on 21st December, 2023. Prof. Pushpashree Tripathy, Lecturer in Education., M.P. Mahanga, Cuttack graced this occasion as Chief Speaker-cum-Resource Person, whereas Prof. Narayan Chandra Muduli, Principal I/C of the college was the Chief guest as guest of Honour. Ms. Neerupama Swain, Lecturer in Education presided over the seminar. The seminar was attended by 66 number of students from +3 1st year, 2nd year and 3rd year Education Honours students.

The seminar was inaugurated at 11.00AM by lightening of the candle by the dignitaries, which was followed by the welcome address of Ms. Neerupama Swain, Ms. Srabani Kanya Swagatika, Lecturer in Education introduced the guest to the students, while Ms. Neerupama Swain, Lecturer in Education read out the keynotes of the seminar. It was followed by the paper presentation of Smrutirekha Gandayat, +3 2nd year student of the department on the title "Cultivating Personal Growth among Rural College Students: Strategies and Initiatives". She highlighted the importance of personal growth in the contemporary time.

Prof. Narayan Chandra Muduli, Principal I/C of the college in his talk focused about the generation gap and talk about the ways to institutionalised it. s. Prof. Pushpashree Tripathy, Lecturer in Education., M.P. Mahanga, Cuttack stimulated the students with cultivating personal growth among rural college students demands a multifaceted approach that addresses their unique needs and challenges. It was followed by the interaction session between the panel and the students.

The seminar ended with a vote of thanks by Ms. Hemalata Sahoo, Faculty Department of Education.

Neerupama Swain
HOD, Education