

Report on the Seminar entitled
“Wildlife Prospectives in Odisha”

Organized by

Department of Zoology
Bishnu Samantaray College, Nuahat, Jajpur

Date: 17.11.2023

A state level seminar on “Wildlife Prospectives in Odisha” was conducted by the Department of Zoology, B.S College, Nuahat, Jajpur, on 17.11.2023, commencing at 11 AM in the college conference hall. The event brought together students, and experts to explore and discuss the diverse wildlife opportunities in the state Odisha.

DIGNITARIES PRESENT

Presiding Officer

Prof. Ranjita Swain, H.O.D in Zoology, B.S College, Nuahat

Chief Guest

Prof. Pabitra Mohan Mahala, Principal, B.S College, Nuahat

Resource Person and Chief Speaker

Prof. Dr. Siba Prasad Parida, Professor in Zoology, Centurion University of Technology and Management, Bhubaneswar

Guests of Honor

Prof. Pramod Kumar Khandai, H.O.D in Sociology, B.S College, Nuahat

Prof. Braja Kishore Swain, H.O.D in Political Science, B.S College, Nuahat

Faculty Member

Prof. Ipsita Sahoo, Zoology lecturer, B.S College, Nuahat

SEMINAR HIGHLIGHTS

- The seminar commenced with a devotional song, setting a positive and reflective tone for the intellectual discourse that followed.
- Prof. Ranjita Swain started with a warm welcome and introduced the esteemed guests, emphasizing their valuable contributions to the academic community.
- Prof. Ipsita Sahoo skillfully highlighted key points related to the seminar's theme, providing context for the subsequent discussions.
- Prof. Pabitra Mohan Mahala, Chief Guest and Principal, expressed his appreciation for the initiative and highlighted the importance of wildlife conservation in Odisha.
- Miss Ipsita Priyadrashini Samal, +3 2nd year (Hons) student, presented perspectives from the student community, adding a dynamic and youthful dimension to the discourse.
- Prof. Dr. Siba Prasad Parida, the resource person and chief speaker, shared comprehensive insights into the wildlife prospectives in Odisha, drawing from his expertise at Centurion University.
- Prof. Ipsita Sahoo extended the formal vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the guests, participants, and students for their active engagement.
- The seminar concluded on a positive note with a vocational song, symbolizing the harmony between nature and human life.

This report is submitted by Prof. Ranjita Swain, Head of the Department of Zoology, B.S College, Nuahat, Jajpur, encapsulating the enriching discussions and valuable insights shared during the seminar. The department acknowledges the collective efforts of all teaching and non-teaching staffs and students that made the seminar a success, fostering a deeper understanding of wildlife prospects in Odisha.

Swain
21/11/2023
Principal
Bishnusamantaray College
Nuahat, Arakhapur Jaipur

Swain
21/11/23
Prof. Ranjita Swain
H.O.D
Department of Zoology
B.S. College, Nuahat, Jajpur